"What We Think, We Become"

Buddha

July 2022.

*Our very dear future Client,
May we be kind,*

So, my thoughts of Lilly's Cleaning Service create who we are as a Company, aha!

It looks like 2022 was just starting and it is time for me to pause and renew my initial intention for this year to observe my thoughts, choosing the ones that bring kindness to my heart in my pursuit of an inner and external world filled of love, joy, peace, abundance, and freedom. I have noticed how, when I don't pay attention, I could let myself be in trance, being who knows where, anything but present, letting life pass between my fingers.

Be HERE Lilly!

A thought creates the chemistry of a feeling that shows up in my chest, stomach, in my body muscles, in my breathing and then, that feeling keeps that thought active until I change the thought...I learned this.

I do practice noticing my feelings and the ones that don't serve my purpose, I name, let go, and change the original thought. Sometimes I must do that repeatedly with the same feeling because I let it stay in my heart for too long. It is easier when I catch the thought or the feeling as soon as they show up; changing the thought that generated the feeling has served me so well.

Honestly, this is the best practice I have found to guard my inner peace and joy that I enjoy so much. An awakened meditation. Respectfully, I invite you to try this endless practice.

And as we do at Lilly's, twice a year, every January and July, we pause and complete our office staff performance evaluations, to wake up, and keep all of us on track to our supreme intention of delivering consistently, the highest quality cleaning and customer service you deserve.

You are happy and so are we!

Which thoughts, feelings and behaviors are we allowing that take us away from being in integrity with our promise to you?

And so, we start another chapter, refreshed, and clear of our semiannual goals and our forever...

Commitment to Deliver Consistent High-Quality Cleaning Results and the Best Customer Service
We Deliver. You Enjoy it.

I am holding you in my heart with DEEP GRATITUDE and appreciation for considering Lilly's Cleaning Service, Inc. as your cleaning needs provider. It comes back to you multiplied with love, joy, peace, abundance, and freedom. It is!

Above all, We are One and Many. We are the Ocean and the Drop. And I see YOU!

I love you all.
