"What We Think, We Become"

Buddha

July 2023,
Our very dear Client,
May we be kind,

Personally, and professionally, the phrase "What We Think, We Become" keeps me on track and has helped me to be aware.

My thoughts of Lilly's Cleaning Service create who we are as a Company, so I also chose them carefully.

It is July and time for me to stop and renew my usual main intention for 2023 "to observe my thoughts, choosing the ones that bring kindness to my heart in my pursuit of an inner and external world filled with love, joy, peace, abundance, and freedom".

Yes, I am still "practicing noticing my feelings"

Is my observation that for example, if someone says something and my stomach contracts, when I name the feeling, like anxiety, or fear, and I let it go, the original thought dissipates, my muscle relaxes, and I find my peace again. Just like that!

In general, it is easier when I catch the thought or the feeling as soon as they show up, stopping right there a cascade of thoughts or feelings that do not serve my higher purpose.

This self-training helps me to safeguard my inner peace and joy, my dearest treasure!!!

And here is my new self-challenge...my brain, as part of its natural function and programming, is always judging my surroundings and myself. I have noticed that when I am able to not judge and only observe, it is easier for me and others TO BE. It is delightful!!!

When I am not judging, ugly, or beautiful, bad, or good, right, or wrong, etc. whatever I am observing intensifies its essence and it relaxes me. This is an exciting new challenge for me. And because I love the results, I see myself going after this new goal and being present.

Respectfully, and because I care about my companions in life, I invite you to try this endless and liberating practice. :)

And as we do at Lilly's twice a year, every January and July, we pause and complete our office staff performance evaluations. This helps us to wake up and keeps all of us on track with our supreme intention of consistently delivering the highest quality cleaning and the excellent, reliable, and flexible customer service you deserve.

Which thoughts, feelings and behaviors are we cultivating to keep us in Integrity with our promise to you?

You are happy and so are we!

And now, we start another episode, rejuvenated, and certain of our semiannual goals and our forever...

Consistent High-Quality Cleaning Results
and an Excellent, Reliable and Flexible Customer Service
We Deliver. You Enjoy it.

*I am holding you in my heart with
DEEPGRATITUDE and appreciation for considering Lilly's Cleaning Service, Inc. as your cleaning needs provider. It comes back to you multiplied with love, joy, peace, abundance, and freedom. It is!*

Above all, We are One and Many. We are the Ocean and the Drop. And I see YOU!

I love you all.
